2019 BAA will Celebrate their 49th Annual Art Show!

November 9 -10th the Badlands Art Show will be held at the Grand Dakota Lodge in Dickinson, North Dakota. The Badlands Art Show, in 2019, will have some changes to the Amateur Division. This year the Amateur division will be split into four categories; Drawing/Pastel, Dimensional, Painting/Mixed Media, and Photography. Each of the categories will be awarded a first, second, and third place prize unlike the previous year where all of the Amateur division only received first through sixth place awards. Amateur will also have a Best of Show and a People's Choice just like what is found in the Professional division.

United Way Empty Bowls

Once again the United Way of Dickinson is partnering with local artists to sponsor Empty Bowls from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. during the Badlands Art Show at the Ramada Grand Dakota Lodge. Guests choose a bowl to use that day and they keep it as a reminder of all the empty bowls in the world. Soup and bread will be served and proceeds will go to local food programs. Area potters from the Badlands Art Association, Dickinson High School and Dickinson State University are making the bowls. The ceramics students taught by DSU Assistant Professor of Art Ian Mabry, will also be making bowls for the event. If you are interested in helping to make bowls for this event, there will be more information on whom to contact in the September newsletter.
