2020 BAA will Celebrate their 50th Annual Art Show! at the Grand Dakota Lodge in the Grand Roosevelt Hotel (formerly the Ramada Inn) in Dickinson, North Dakota. The Badlands Art Show is an open show. An “open” show means that you do not have to pass a judge to get in the show. The Badlands Art Association is a small group; this is our major event for the year. We do the show in order to offer artists of all abilities the opportunity to showcase their work and to give the public a chance to see the wide range of art being created in our area. Entry forms will be ready in August.

50th Annual Art Show Dedicated to their Founders

In 1970 three local artists got together and decided to form an art association thereby forming The Badlands Art Association. They held their first open show in the basement of Community First National Bank (now Bank of the West) that November. They were quickly joined in the following years by David & Mary Huether, Cherie Roshau, Beverly Haas, Kathy Foster, Jack Stewart, and Michael Dunn.

Watercolor Wax Batik with Linda Renaud

Diving In to Watercolor Wax Batik, June 17-19, 2021

The process of watercolor wax batik will be explained, demonstrated and practiced in this hands-on, intensive workshop. Learn how to select the best photos to work from, plan your painting, build the multiple layers of wax and watercolor and then do the final batiking and the "reveal."

Schedule

Thursday, June 17

4:00 – 8:00 pm (break for supper)

Friday & Sat., June 18-19

9:00 am – 4:00 pm (noon break each day)

"Taking the Plunge" Opal Award Winner, Western Federation of Watercolor Societies Show, Stephen Quiller, juror

Topics covered will include:

- Recognizing Value Changes (light to dark)
- Review of Color – color harmonies, analogous & complementary colors
- Planning Your Painting; First Wax Application – and Initial Wash of Watercolor
- Continuing with the planning/diagramming process
- Building Up the Layers
- Batiking your painting

About the instructor:

A former member of the Badlands Artists Association, Linda has painted in watercolor wax batik for the past seven years. In that time she has won numerous awards for her paintings and taught the wax batik process to dozens of artists.

Linda is a signature

member of the Red River Watercolor Society, and has had her work accepted in multiple juried shows including the Rocky Mountain Watermedia National Exhibition, the Western Federation of Watercolor Societies Show, the Red River Watercolor Society National Exhibition, the Pikes Peak International Show and three Colorado Watercolor Society shows.

Comments from workshop participants:

"Linda is organized and very funny! She has a great sense of self and her love of what she is doing really comes through." – Paula M.

"She is really good – both as an artist and as a teacher which is a rather unique talent. Good artists don't always make good teachers - she is an exception!" – Peg W.
