Job Opportunity from NDCA

North Dakota Council on the Arts are looking for a new AmeriCorps member to take over the role of Placemaking Coordinator for Arts Across the Prairie: Placemaking in Rural North Dakota. The position will begin mid-September 2021. Ideally, the person in this role is someone with knowledge in public art management, community outreach skills, and administrative skills. The position is also remote, so the AmeriCorps member can live anywhere in North Dakota! Travel in a personal vehicle is a requirement when needed.

Please share this information with whomever you think may be interested. AmeriCorps programs are administered by Souris Basin Planning Council in Minot, ND. Applicants may apply through Souris Basin at the link below:
