Oil Painting Workshop, sponsored by BAA

Dickinson, ND

Wm. Hawkins is known for his colorful and stylized impressionist oil paintings. His work hangs in private, public, and corporate collections throughout the world. Clouds, trees, cows and plowed, rain-soaked fields are among his favorite subjects. His work has been featured in publications such as Art Calendar magazine and International Artist magazine and hangs in the Grand Canyon Association's permanent collection. He has been a top auction seller on eBay and other online art sites since 2004. Several modern luminaries and political personages are among his patrons. # CALL FOR ARTISTS

In collaboration between the City of Williston
& the James Memorial Art Center

For Immediate release: June 12, 2025

Partnership with the City of Williston to provide local/regional art

James Memorial Art Center/City of Williston Call for Artists: Exhibit Your Work in the Williston City Commission Room In partnership with the City of Williston, the James Memorial Art Center is pleased to announce an open call for local and regional artists to submit original artwork for display in the Williston City Commission room.

This is a unique opportunity to showcase your work in a prominent public space. All artwork selected will be on display for a four-month rotation period:

- July – October
- November – February
- March – June

Submission Deadlines:

- February 15
- June 15
- October 15

PLEASE NOTE!! FOR THIS FIRST SUBMISSION PERIOD, THE DEADLINE IS JULY 7, 2025!

Guidelines

- Artists may submit up to 2 pieces, though only one piece may be selected per artist per cycle.
- The artwork must be ready to hang with sufficient hanging hardware.
- Artwork cannot be larger than 3'x4' framed.
- Depending on the size of the selected works, 3–6 pieces will be chosen for each rotation.
- All artwork must remain on display for the full rotation, even if sold.
- Artwork may be for sale — artists will retain 100% of the sale price.
- Artists must provide the title, dimensions, medium, and price (if for sale) with each submission.

We encourage artists working in all styles and mediums to apply. This collaboration is part of our ongoing effort to bring art into public spaces and support the creative community of Williston.

For questions, please contact the James Memorial Art Center at JmpsWilliston@gmail.com or 701-774-3601. For submissions, please visit www.thejamesmemorial.org and head to the Artist Opportunities page.

Let your art become part of the everyday conversation at City Hall!

GENERAL INFORMATION The James Memorial Art Center is located at 621 First Avenue West in Williston. Gallery hours are Monday-Thursday 9am-3pm and Friday 12-5pm. September – April, the gallery is open on Sundays from 1-5 PM. It is closed on federally observed holidays. We are a 501c3 non-profit organization.

Exhibitions, receptions, and other regularly scheduled events are free and open to the public.
